THE GREATEST WORK OF REV. CUNNINGHAM GEIKIE, D.D.

HOURS WITH THE BIBLE;

OR,

The Scriptures in the Light of Modern Discovery and Knowledge.

"My aim in this new undertaking, which involves almost more labor than my 'Life and Words of Christ,' has been and will be to bring all that I can gather from every available source to bear on the illustrations of the Scriptures. Not a dry series of papers, but a pleasant, attractive illumination of its pages by the varied lights of modern research and discovery."—(From the Preface.)

12mo, Cloth, with Illustrations, $1.50 each.

Sold separately, and each complete and distinct in itself.

Vol. I. From Creation to the Patriarchs.
" II. From Moses to the Judges.
" III. From Samson to Solomon.
" IV. From Rehoboam to Hezekiah. (Just issued.)

FROM THE PRESS:

"A work beyond criticism. It gives the concentrated results of many lines of investigation, and is in itself a whole library."—Churchman.

"The style is so lucid and simple that the closely packed information can not only be read with ease by any ordinarily educated person, but will readily allow of being popularised by the clergy in the shape of lectures."—London Church Times.

"The careful reading of these essays will furnish the general reader precisely what he wants to know, in terms which he can understand."—N. Y. Times.

"It is a volume full of rich and varied learning. It will prove an invaluable addition to every theological library."—N. Y. Herald.

"Dr. Geikie's work gives sure promise of becoming one which no Bible student can afford to do without. No such work as this, it may be said, could possibly have been written before the present century."—Churchman.

"To the student of the Bible these volumes are indispensable. The amount of varied research and knowledge brought to bear on the pages of Scripture is really wonderful."—Irish Ecclesiastical Gazette.

"Dr. Geikie's array of authorities fairly bristles with eminent names, whose works he has used in the preparation of his most interesting and valuable handbook."—Church Standard.

"His 'Hours with the Bible' will meet a want of a popular and reliable book of Bible study. For the illustration of Scripture the author has gathered treasures from many sources, and has expended much labor of hand and brain."—Living Church, Chicago.

"We should be glad so to commend this work as to induce many to read it. It has a value much higher than many of the works which issue from our religious publishing houses."—Christian Union.

"This is the most noteworthy contribution to the popular illustration of the Scriptures which has appeared since the publication of John Kitto."—N. Y. Critic.

"It is richly illustrated from the recent results of historical study; and is written in so pleasing and realistic a style that it will be singularly helpful in placing the reader in the midst of the scenes described, and kindling the emotion appropriate to the scenes. It is a splendid contribution to Biblical study."

"It is undeniable that this forms one of the very best possible manuals to aid the Bible student in comprehending the Scripture text in the light of modern research and thought."—American Hebrew.

"Modern discovery and science are made to pour their contributions of light, as in one blazing avalanche, upon the sacred shrine of Scripture Truth."—The Preacher.

"The clergy will buy this book, because it fills a long-felt want. . . The intelligent layman will buy this book, because it is interesting and readable, and because it explains many mysticisms and difficult questions."—American Church Review.

I have examined the official list of awards at the Universal Exposition, as published by the French authorities, and find that only one grand prize was awarded for sewing machines; that was given to the Wheeler & Wilson Company, of New York.

The Grand Gold Medal and Diploma were delivered to me at the Palais de l'Industrie, October 21st, and by me at once given to the representative of that Company, at the Exposition.

NEW BOOKS.

SCIENCE AND SENTIMENT. With other Papers, chiefly Philosophical. By NOAH PORTER, D.D., LL.D., President of Yale College. 1 vol. crown 8vo, $2.50.

These essays on living themes of philosophy, or concerning philosophical leaders, embrace a summary of the teachings of the prevailing schools of philosophy and a criticism of their pretensions. The style and form of thought are popular, free from all merely scholastic and technical phraseology, but worthy of the most careful attention on the part of the reader.

HISTORY OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH. By PHILIP SCHAFF, D.D. Volume I. Apostolic Christianity. 8vo, 880 pages, $4.

The publication of Dr. Schaff's History of the Christian Church was begun nearly a quarter of a century ago, but was for many years suspended in consequence of pressing calls into other fields of labor. The author has now entered upon its completion in earnest, and has entirely re-written and expanded the first section of the work. it is designed as a complete vindication of the Gospels and the Apostolic Church against the attacks of modern skepticism. It notices every important work and enters into all the difficulties connected with the life of Christ and the various books of the New Testament, from Matthew to Revelation. This volume will be followed at intervals by others, carrying the narrative to the middle of the seventeenth century.

CRITERIA OF DIVERSE KINDS OF TRUTH. As opposed to Agnosticism. Being a Treatise on Applied Logic. (Philosophic Series No. 1.) By JAMES MCCOSH, D.D., LL.D., D.L. Author of "Intuitions of the Mind," "Laws of Discursive Thought," etc. 1 vol., paper, 50 cents.

This is the first of a series which will be published quarterly, in small volumes of about sixty pages each, in stout paper covers, at fifty cents per volume, each embracing an exposition complete in itself of one theme.

MORAVIAN MISSIONS. By Rev. A. C. THOMPSON, D.D. 1 vol. $1.50.

These lectures open with a history of the Moravians, both the ancient and the modern church, and an account of the life and labors of Count Zinzendorf. The author then proceeds to the special history of the Moravian Missions in the West Indies, in Central and South America, in Greenland, in Labrador, among the Indians and elsewhere. It is the first thorough and comprehensive account of the Moravians and their missions that has appeared in English.

THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION. By Professor GEORGE P. FISHER, D.D. 1 vol., paper, 30 cents; cloth, 40 cents. Supplied in quantities for distribution at a very low rate.

THE RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF RECTORS, CHURCHWARDENS, AND VESTRYMEN IN THE AMERICAN CHURCH. By the Rev. HENRY MASON BAUM. 345 pages. $1.50.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

From the Churchman.

A book like this—and nothing better of the kind, as we are aware, can be found—ought to be in the hands of every clergyman and every parish officer. A vast amount of friction might be saved in the working of our Church machinery if men only knew how it ought to run. Misunderstandings and difficulties between rectors and the people frequently arise from ignorance of their mutual and respective rights and duties. Mr. Baum gives the laws of the Church, the opinions of learned writers, and likewise the decisions of the courts, both ecclesiastical and civil, in the more important cases which have arisen. The author, from the very nature of the case, labored under many and peculiar difficulties, but he has succeeded remarkably well. His book will serve both as a guide and as an educator, for it gives not only rules, but also principles. We hope that it will find its way to every parish, and that Churchmen will study it.

From the Standard.

To make use of a hackneyed expression, but in this case perfectly appropriate, this is an exhaustive treatise on the subject to which it refers. We have examined it very carefully, and have not found any mistakes and incorrect statements, any opinions that do not seem to be well sustained by authorities that demand respect. Cases that have occurred in which important questions have been settled are given from the reports, and all important questions about which there may be two opinions, and that have been judiciously determined, are to be found here. It would appear to any one that carefully looks into the matter, and gives the book anything deserving the name of careful examination, that the author, if a priest now, was a lawyer once, or must have had a legal training or a very decided bias for legal criticism. We believe that Mr. Baum had been admitted to the bar and practised law before he took Holy Orders. That accounts for the interest manifested in the undertaking of the subject, and for the ability with which it has been carried out. A full table of contents and a copious index add to the value, and materially increase the facility for using this work.

From the Living Church.

Mr. Baum's book contains a vast amount of information on a large variety of topics. The author's study of the subject has been extensive and his arrangement of his material is lucid and convenient. He has drawn largely on Dr. Hawks and Judge Hoffman for the opinions expressed, showing, we think, a general preference for the latter, which we do not altogether approve. He also gives large quotations from reports and judgments in cases heretofore decided in the history of the Church, such as would not be accessible to the ordinary student. Taken as a whole, it is a work of real and permanent value, and compresses into a very small space a really large and valuable amount of elementary information.

American Church Building Fund Commission.

The Commission was established October 25th, 1880, by the Board of Missions, comprising in its membership both houses of the General Convention. It consists of all the Bishops, of one Clergyman and one Layman from each Diocese and Missionary Jurisdiction, and of twenty members at large appointed by the Presiding Bishop. Its object is to create a fund of One Million Dollars, the income of which shall be given, and portions of the principal of which may be loaned, to aid the building of new churches wherever help is especially needed. The Commission wish to complete the fund by October, 1883, that the General Convention may then present it as an offering to God, a memorial of His care in the past; a pledge for the further extension of His Kingdom in the future; and that it may commemorate as a monument the Centennial of the American Church as a branch of the Church Catholic. These facts appeal to all to whom these presents come.

The Rt. Rev. HORATIO POTTER, D.D., LL.D., D.C.L.,
President of the Commission.

The Rt. Rev. WILLIAM BACON STEVENS, D.D., LL.D.,
The Rt. Rev. HENRY BENJAMIN WIPPLE, D.D.,
The Rt. Rev. ROBERT HARPER CLARKSON, D.D., LL.D.,
The Rt. Rev. THOMAS AUGUSTUS JAGGER, D.D.,
The Rt. Rev. ROB. WOODWARD BARNWELL ELLIOTT, D.D.,
Vice-Presidents of the Commission.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:

The Rt. Rev. WILLIAM CROSWELL DOANE, S.T.D., LL.D., President.
The Rt. Rev. JOHN SCARBOROUGH, D.D.,
The Rt. Rev. THOMAS ALFRED STARKEY, D.D.,

Rev. MORGAN DIX, D.D.,	Rev. NOAH HUNT SCHENCK, D.D.,
Rev. W. N. McVICKAR,	Rev. WM. S. LANGFORD,
Rev. W. A. LEONARD,	Mr. LEMUEL COFFIN,
Hon. L. BRADFORD PRINCE,	Hon. HAMILTON FISH,
GEO. C. SHATTUCK, M.D.,	Mr. GEO. C. HANCE,
WM. G. LOW, Esq., Secretary.	Mr. JAMES M. BROWN, Treasurer.

Rev. CHARLES HOWARD MALCOM, D.D., Corresponding Secretary.

The General Convention requested that an offering be made in each year for the three years, in every Church in the land. This of itself, if the subject be earnestly and zealously presented by the Clergy, will produce a great sum. Indeed, if the subject could be thoroughly understood by every worshiper, it would no doubt reach the entire amount proposed. Then direct contributions will be received from the generous and the faithful throughout the whole Church. These may be made at once or in instalments during the three years.

Within the first year the work of the Commission has necessarily been much of the nature of construction. Auxiliary Committees have been formed; a vast correspondence has been carried on extending into every Diocese and Missionary Jurisdiction; tens of thousands of pamphlets, circulars, lithograph letters, and appeals have been sent forth; and, in every quarter of the Church, earnest co-workers are now engaged in carrying on the object of the Commission.

Many Bishops have issued Pastoral Letters commending the matter, and have urged it in their annual addresses. In a number of Dioceses a certain Sunday has been appointed for an offering for the Fund in every congregation.

Contributions have been received to the treasury of the Commission from all parts of our country, and from China, and Greece, Eminent Bishops, Rectors, and Missionaries have expressed their appreciation of this important department of Church work. The gifts and co-operation of every Churchman are earnestly solicited.

NOTICE

TO THE

SUBSCRIBERS TO THE DOLLAR EDITION.

THE announcement was made in March last that a cheap edition of the REVIEW for 1882 would be published for $1, and that it would not be continued beyond 1882 unless 10,000 subscribers were secured. Up to the present time (the issuing of the October number) there are about 1300 subscribers to this edition. It will, therefore, be discontinued.

It will be seen by the Publishers' Notice for 1883, on page 300 of the REVIEW, that the annual subscription price of the Library Edition has been reduced from $4 to $2. It will require a large Subscription List at this low rate to sustain the REVIEW; but it is believed that Churchmen will appreciate the effort made to place it within the reach of all.

We hope you will favor us by renewing your subscription for 1883 at an early date.

Respectfully,

American Church Review Association.
